My Present Level of Performance

• From the information on the previous page of this worksheet, write a Present Level of Performance “story” about yourself.
• Ask all IEP team members to also draft a Present Level of Performance “story” for you.
• Have one IEP team member use all of the completed “stories” to draft a Present Level of Performance to become part of your IEP.

Developing My Goals and Identifying How My Progress Will Be Measured

Work with your parents and educators to draft some goals based on your needs and what you are expected to learn.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>My Need: What do I need to learn? (You may want to read back through your PLoP.)</th>
<th>What am I supposed to learn? Are there grade-level standards or aligned standards* or skills linked to my need?</th>
<th>My Goal (include how the goal will be monitored and progress reported): In this area of need, what do I want to be able to do? How am I doing now, and how much do I want to improve by the end of the year? What instruction will I need to get to help me make this improvement? How will my improvement be measured and reported to me, my parents, and my teachers? (Objectives and benchmarks, steps in reaching the goal, are optional but are required for students participating in alternate assessment programs.)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>For examples of goals, see p. 40</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

* States may have Aligned Standards for students with disabilities whose IEP teams have determined that the appropriate state assessment is an alternate assessment program.
