A passionate keynote speaker will motivate early child care providers to identify ways to positively influence relationships during every day activities and interactions.

Workshop session, Time Together, will explore social emotional development and behaviors that support secure attachment.

Workshop session, Bounce Back Through Books, will explore how to build resiliency while bonding with babies and toddlers through the use of books.